Study-unit Aims

This study-unit aims to provide participants with the basic knowledge of Croatian language and culture, the variety of cultural and educational institutions in Split and the highlights of the city. It is designed to equip participants with knowledge of the beginner's level of Croatian Language (A1) in the domains of vocabulary, grammar and culture. Furthermore, the Croatian culture and civilisation course provides an insight into Croatian cultural heritage while preparing the participants for independent study of various aspects of Croatian culture, history, tradition and literature.

All the participants are welcome to continue the course during two more weeks as a part of the Summer School of Croatian Language and Culture 2021. For further information on the course unit, please visit the Summer School description on UNIST website.

Targeted students

All students who want to learn or expand their knowledge about Croatia and learn Croatian as a foreign language.

Register

The course will be filled on a first-come-first-served-basis. Register your interest via this form.

Maximum of 2 students per SEA-EU University.
