

Gdańsk, Poland

Take courses from the University of Michigan-Dearborn, one of the top regional universities in the U.S.A, for free at the University of Gdańsk alongside of U.S. students.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Courses Available (all taught in English):

- For UG Students (UM-Dearborn Credits or Possible UG credits):
 - Engineering 360: Design Innovation: Process, Method and Practice (8 ECTS)
 - Meets Tuesdays, 9 am - 6 pm, May 7 to June 20
 - UG Faculty of Management, Sopot
 - Class is open to and appropriate for students of all undergraduate majors. Highly interactive project-based introduction to design, and structured as a hands-on course.
 - HIST 3380: The European City (8 ECTS)
 - Meets Wednesdays, 9 am - 6 pm, May 8 to June 20
 - UG Faculty of History, Gdańsk
 - This course explores key features of modern urban life through the history of the European city.
 - These classes can be counted for UG electives (UG credit possible)
- For UG Students and UG Erasmus Students:
 - HIST 3122: Polish History (offered by UG Faculty, UG credit only)

DATES AND DEADLINES

Semester: End of Summer 2024

Application Deadline: March 31, 2024

Decision Date: Rolling Admission

Start Date: May 6, 2024

End Date: June 21, 2024

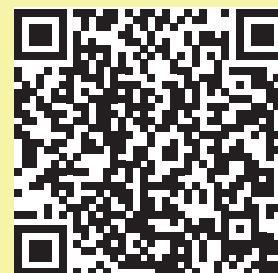

Scott Riggs: (UM-Dearborn Contact)

snriggs@umich.edu

Anna Mazurkiewicz (UG Contact):

anna.mazurkiewicz@ug.edu.pl

Apply: bit.ly/UMDinGdansk